

Amendments to the IAAF Disputes and Disciplinary Proceedings Rules (“the Rules”)

Consequential Amendments to the Rules arising from a change to Article 84 of the IAAF Constitution (as approved by the IAAF Congress) in force from 1 November 2019.

Current Rule (Approved)	Amendment(s) (In bold)	For Amendment Clean Version (in force 1 November 2019)
DISPUTES BETWEEN THE IAAF AND ANY MEMBER, AREA ASSOCIATION, ATHLETE, ATHLETE SUPPORT PERSONNEL OR OTHER PERSON(S)	DISPUTES BETWEEN THE IAAF AND ANY MEMBER, AREA ASSOCIATION, ATHLETE, ATHLETE SUPPORT PERSONNEL OR OTHER PERSON(S)	DISPUTES BETWEEN THE IAAF AND ANY MEMBER, AREA ASSOCIATION, ATHLETE, ATHLETE SUPPORT PERSONNEL OR OTHER PERSON(S)
60.5. This Rule 60.5 relates to any legal dispute of any kind whatsoever arising between the IAAF on the one hand and any Member, Area Association, athlete, athlete support personnel or other person who is subject to the IAAF Constitution and/or any of the IAAF Rules or Regulations on the other hand, in relation to the IAAF Constitution and/or any IAAF Rule or Regulation and/or any IAAF decision or act or omission, howsoever arising, that is not covered by the dispute resolution provisions of the IAAF Constitution or any IAAF Rules or Regulations (a "Dispute"). Each Dispute shall be referred to arbitration before the CAS, to the exclusion of any other court or forum. The CAS will hear and determine the Dispute definitively in accordance with relevant provisions of the CAS Code of Sports-Related Arbitration. The	60.5. This Rule 60.5 relates to any legal dispute of any kind whatsoever arising between the IAAF on the one hand and any Member, Area Association, athlete, athlete support personnel or other person who is subject to the IAAF Constitution and/or any of the IAAF Rules or Regulations on the other hand, in relation to the IAAF Constitution and/or any IAAF Rule or Regulation and/or any IAAF decision or act or omission, howsoever arising, that is not covered by the dispute resolution provisions of the IAAF Constitution or any IAAF Rules or Regulations (each a "Dispute"). Each Subject to, and in accordance with Article 84 of the Constitution, a Dispute shall be referred submitted to arbitration before the CAS (Ordinary Arbitration Division or Appeal Arbitration Division, depending on the	60.5. This Rule 60.5 relates to any legal dispute of any kind whatsoever arising between the IAAF on the one hand and any Member, Area Association, athlete, athlete support personnel or other person who is subject to the IAAF Constitution and/or any of the IAAF Rules or Regulations on the other hand, in relation to the IAAF Constitution and/or any IAAF Rule or Regulation and/or any IAAF decision or act or omission, howsoever arising, that is not covered by the dispute resolution provisions of the IAAF Constitution or any IAAF Rules or Regulations (each a "Dispute"). Subject to, and in accordance with Article 84 of the Constitution, a Dispute shall be submitted to arbitration before the CAS (Ordinary Arbitration Division or Appeal Arbitration Division, depending on the circumstances of the case), to the exclusion of any other court or forum. The CAS will hear and determine the Dispute definitively in

Current Rule (Approved)	Amendment(s) (In bold)	For Amendment Clean Version (in force 1 November 2019)
law governing the Dispute will be the IAAF Constitution and IAAF Rules and Regulations, with the laws of Monaco applying subsidiarily. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitration proceedings before the CAS will be conducted in the English language before a Panel consisting of three arbitrators. Pending determination of the Dispute by the CAS, any provision of the IAAF Constitution or IAAF Rule or Regulation or decision or act or omission under challenge will remain in full force and effect unless the CAS orders otherwise. The ultimate decision of the CAS on the merits of the Dispute will be final and binding on all parties, and all parties waive irrevocably any rights they might otherwise have to any form of appeal, review or other challenge in respect of that decision, except as set out in Chapter 12 of the Swiss Federal Code on Private International Law.	circumstances of the case), to the exclusion of any other court or forum. The CAS will hear and determine the Dispute definitively in accordance with relevant provisions of the CAS Code of Sports-Related Arbitration. The law governing the Dispute will be the IAAF Constitution and IAAF Rules and Regulations, with the laws of Monaco applying subsidiarily. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitration proceedings before the CAS will be conducted in the English language before a Panel consisting of three arbitrators. Pending determination of the Dispute by the CAS, any provision of the IAAF Constitution or IAAF Rule or Regulation or decision or act or omission under challenge will remain in full force and effect unless the CAS orders otherwise. The ultimate decision of the CAS on the merits of the Dispute will be final and binding on all parties, and all parties waive irrevocably any rights they might otherwise have to any form of appeal, review or other challenge in respect of that decision, except as set out in Chapter 12 of the Swiss Switzerland's Federal Code on Private International Law.	accordance with relevant provisions of the CAS Code of Sports-Related Arbitration. The law governing the Dispute will be the IAAF Constitution and IAAF Rules and Regulations, with the laws of Monaco applying subsidiarily. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitration proceedings before the CAS will be conducted in the English language before a Panel consisting of three arbitrators. Pending determination of the Dispute by the CAS, any provision of the IAAF Constitution or IAAF Rule or Regulation or decision or act or omission under challenge will remain in full force and effect unless the CAS orders otherwise. The ultimate decision of the CAS on the merits of the Dispute will be final and binding on all parties, and all parties waive irrevocably any rights they might otherwise have to any form of appeal, review or other challenge in respect of that decision, except as set out in Chapter 12 of Switzerland's Federal Code on Private International Law.
DISPUTES BETWEEN MEMBERS AND AREA ASSOCIATIONS	DISPUTES BETWEEN (i) MEMBERS, (ii) AREA ASSOCIATIONS, AND (iii) A MEMBER(S) AND AN AREA ASSOCIATION(S)	DISPUTES BETWEEN (i) MEMBERS, (ii) AREA ASSOCIATIONS, AND (iii) A MEMBER(S) AND AN AREA ASSOCIATION(S)
60.7. Each Member shall incorporate a provision in its constitution that all disputes	60.7. Each Member and Area Association shall incorporate a provision in its	60.7. Each Member and Area Association shall incorporate a provision in its constitution that all

Current Rule (Approved)	Amendment(s) (In bold)	For Amendment Clean Version (in force 1 November 2019)
with another Member or an Area Association shall be referred to the Council. The Council shall determine a procedure for the final adjudication of the dispute depending on the circumstances of the case in question.	constitution that all disputes with another Member or an Area Association between (i) Members, (ii) Area Associations, and (iii) a Member(s) and an Area Association(s) shall be referred to the Council. The Council shall determine a procedure for the final adjudication of the dispute depending on the circumstances of the case in question. may: a. take reasonable steps to assist in the resolution of such dispute or difference (which may include appointing a mediator); and b. if necessary, direct the parties to refer the matter to arbitration before the CAS (Ordinary Arbitration Division), to the exclusion of any other court or forum, in accordance with Rule 8, below.	disputes between (i) Members, (ii) Area Associations, and (iii) a Member(s) and an Area Association(s) shall be referred to the Council. The Council. may: a. take reasonable steps to assist in the resolution of such dispute or difference (which may include appointing a mediator); and b. if necessary, direct the parties to refer the matter to arbitration before the CAS (Ordinary Arbitration Division), to the exclusion of any other court or forum, in accordance with Rule 8, below.
N/A	Insert new Rule 60.8. Any dispute submitted to the CAS must be filed within five days of being directed to do so pursuant to Rule 7.b, above. If a dispute is referred to arbitration before the CAS, the CAS will resolve the dispute definitively in accordance with the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration.	60.8. Any dispute submitted to the CAS must be filed within five days of being directed to do so pursuant to Rule 7.b, above. If a dispute is referred to arbitration before the CAS, the CAS will resolve the dispute definitively in accordance with the CAS Code of Sports-related Arbitration.