Looking forward to a busy summer of athletics action

The 2016 summer season is well and truly in full swing. The IAAF Diamond League, IAAF World Challenge, IAAF Combined Events, Race Walking and Hammer Throw Challenges have all commenced and will pave the way to the peak of the season, the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

There are little more than 70 days until the athletics programme gets underway in Rio’s Olympic Stadium, but already there have been some scintillating performances to whet the appetite for what looks set to be a memorable Games.

For young athletes, meanwhile, the focus of this year will be the IAAF World U20 Championships Bydgoszcz 2016, which will take place from 19-24 July.

The 204th IAAF Council Meeting will take place on 17 June 2016 at the Grand Hotel Wien in Vienna, Austria.
